In this statement Mr. Meredith was fully corrobusined by the members of the press, whose good or lead let it had been to sit up with the committees or through the sessions of the two branches of the City Council night after night.

Mr. Wallerstein also pointed out that it had been charred that the city was observed him is means by some $135,000, and yet the one fact, for instance, was lost entirely sight of, that during the past year or so the City Collector had oills amounting to Sa,80 for street improvements where the abuitting property where the abutting property where declined to pay on account of erain defects in the existing law. FIVE SUB-COMMITTEES.

After some further discussion Mr. Cas-le suggested that the committee divide self into five sub-committees to tackle be work before them in the most sysmatte and practical manner, each subremailtree to consist of one member. The first one to report the action of the Connell in reward to all financial transactions; the second to examine the record o the present time; the fourth to examine be work done by the various commit-ces; the fifth (the chairman) to report any other matters not included in the work of the other sub-committees.

This was agreed to, and the chairman appointed the members of the committee to take charge of the various divisions as sub-committees, in the following order (as named by Mr. Caralle's resolution; Mr. Caskie, Mr. Noble, Mr. Reeve, Mr. Wallerstein, and Mr. Davis.

The meeting then adjourned until Tues-day, March 31st, when the reports of the lous sub-committees are expected to be presented.

COMMITTEE ON STREETS,

Arrangements Perfected for the Shifting of the Various Trucks on Broad Street. Yesterday afternoon was the regulameeting time for the Council Committee on Streets, and when Major Allen called the meeting to order in room No. 5 of the City Hall at 5 P. M. only Messrs. Alich, Blanks, Burton, Ferriter, and McDowell were present. A recess for fifteen minutes was then taken in order to gwait the arrival of a quorum. Soon after Messrs. Diacont and King put in an appearance, and the usual business was proceeded

The first business taken up was a subsitute ordinance in regard to the shifting of tracks on Broad street, as agreed upon by all interested parties. The commutee decided to recommend to the Council the adoption of the ordinance. The latter provides the following:

THE NEW ORDINANCE. 1 That the Richmond Union Passenger Railway Company is authorized to shift its tracks on Broad street between Hancock and Harrison streets so as to conform to the plat now on file in the office of the City Engineer, and in the office of the City Clerk, having thereon for the purpose of identification the signature of of all interested parties. The said tracks, when so moved, shall be held under the terms and conditions under which the present tracks are held.
